Description

We are a micro-brewery that will produce its craft beers in a transformed former Church in the suburbs of Namur. Our project is wider than just producing beer : we'd like to run activities that will put the beer where it deserves to be : " as noble gastronomical product". We also plan to run beer-oriented "team building" events for customers

Offre & Demande

we are a new micro-brewery under formation; let's work together where possible !

We'd like to explore options to work together in different domains : outsourcing our bottling or have a community bottling project; confront our business ideas with the market reality, speak about our future offering (courses, team event,...) and more ...
